Now that you have been admitted to a program of graduate study in the Department of Geological Sciences, you should be reminded of the time limits for choosing an advisor to assist in your program planning and advise you on your research. The selection of an advisor should be a matter of mutual agreement between you and a faculty member, as stated in sections 5.1 (M.S.-Plan A), 8.1 (M.S.-Plan B), and 11.1 (Ph.D.) of the Graduate Student Handbook.
